STEPHEN DESTEFANO ELECTED TO CAPITAL REGION FOOD PROGRAM BOARD

CONCORD, NH — Stephen DeStefano of Bow, owner/broker of Concord's Century 21 Circa 72, Inc., was elected to the Board of Trustees for the Capital Region Food Program (CRFP) at the program's June 2010 Trustee meeting. DeStefano also currently serves in the NH State House of Representatives.

DeStefano previously served as a trustee for the Capital Region Food Program in 1981. "We are pleased to welcome Steve back to the CRFP as a trustee. Steve's wealth of experience working in the greater Concord area will undoubtedly benefit those we are proud to serve," says John M. Greabe, Chair. "Our trustees guide our efforts as we continue our work in supporting over thirty partner agencies."

The Capital Region Food Program works to help reduce hunger in the Greater Concord area through year round distribution of food for individuals and families by securing financial donations and in-kind services and by coordination, collaboration, and cooperation with other community distribution and social service agencies.

Visit www.capitalregionfoodprogram.org for more information on how to organize a food drive, to donate and to volunteer, and to find a list of partner agencies supported by CRFP efforts.

The Capital Region Food Program, in association with social service agencies, area food pantries, and church groups, has been dedicated to the elimination of hunger in Greater Concord Area since 1974 through distribution of food to individuals and families.

On an annual basis, the CRFP distributes over 100 tons of food through two initiatives. Thirty-five (35) tons of food is distributed through the Year Round Distribution Project which is held eleven times a year. Sixty-five (65) tons of food is distributed through the program's Holiday Food Basket Project, held in partnership with the New Hampshire Army National Guard each December.
