CAPITAL REGION FOOD PROGRAM BOOSTS LOCAL AGENCIES' FOOD SUPPLIES

CONCORD, NH — The Capital Region Food Program (CRFP) purchased over 400 cases of food for the months of August and September for its monthly Year Round Distribution Project (YRDP). On August 9 and September 13, the cases, the equivalent to over 7 tons of food, were distributed to more than 20 agencies in Concord and the surrounding communities at the Market Basket on Storrs Street in Concord.

The recipient agencies for the two distributions were: Blueberry Express Day Care, Boscawen Congregational Church, Town of Boscawen Human Services, Centerpoint Church – Phileo Pantry, Concord CAP, Concord Human Services, First Congregational Church, Friendly Soup Kitchen, Friends of Forgotten Children, Hopkinton Food Pantry, Immaculate Conception Church Food Pantry, McKenna House, Merrimack Valley Day Care, Pittsfield Food Pantry, St. Paul's Food Pantry, St. Peter's Church (St. Vincent de Paul Society), Salvation Army, Suncook CAP, United Church of Penacook, and the Webster Food Pantry.

The YRDP donates cases of food to local agencies ten times throughout the year. In 2006, the YRDP distributed over 30 tons of food to its participating organizations, which provided those donations to families of need in the Greater Concord Area.
