PROGRAMS

The Capital Region Food Program is comprised of two major initiatives that aid in feeding economically challenged families and individuals.

Year Round Distribution Project (YRDP)

- Formalized in 1992 to provide monthly supplemental food supplies to area food pantries in partnership with Associated Grocers of New England
- The supplemental food given to partner agencies is enough to provide over 5,500 meals per month to needy families
- Over 35 tons of food were purchased, collected and distributed to participating agencies in 2008

Holiday Food Basket Project (HFBP)

- Established in 1974 to provide to families in the Greater Concord Area during the holiday season
- Partners with NH Armory National Guard as distribution center since 1983
- Food distributed to families and individuals provides a nice holiday meal and enough to sustain them for 2-3 weeks
- 65 tons of food secured by CRFP funds, as well as community food drives, fill the baskets

HOW YOU CAN HELP

The Capital Region Food Program relies on donations and contributions from generous individuals and businesses to achieve our goal of reducing hunger in the Greater Concord Area.

Financial Support

Since its inception, the CRFP has operated with the commitment that every dollar raised is used for the purchase of food. Contributions are integral to our success.

Your Time

As an all-volunteer organization, we welcome both individuals and groups who can lend their time and/or expertise to the CRFP.

In Kind Contributions

The CRFP relies on the support of key contributors who have offered their time, services, and/or to financial assistance to help our organization achieve its mission.

For more information about the Capital Region Food Program, including services and how to volunteer or donate, please visit our website.

Every dollar donated to the CRFP is used exclusively to purchase food for our partner agencies and families and individuals in need.
