Food Program Elects Board Members

Concord, N.H. (October 1, 2012) — The Capital Region Food Program has elected Erin Reardon Lambert of Bow, as vice chair of the board of trustees. Jarrett Duncan of Dunbarton and Peter Hayden of Concord as new trustees.

Lambert is a project manager with Nobis Engineering. Duncan is an attorney in the administrative and environmental law department of McLane, Graf, Raulerson and Middleton, P.A.. Hayden is an operations manager with Agile Magnetics.

The Capital Region Food Program (CRFP) is a private, not-for-profit organization whose mission is to help reduce hunger in the Greater Concord area through year-round distribution of food to individuals and families. Since 1974 this has been accomplished by securing financial donations and in-kind services and by coordination, collaboration, and cooperation with other community distribution and service agencies.

The program distributes over 100 tons of free food annually through two initiatives. Thirty-five tons of food is distributed through the Year Round Distribution Project which is held eleven times a year. Over sixty-five tons of food is distributed through the program's Holiday Food Basket Project, held in partnership with the New Hampshire National Guard each December.

Visit www.capitalregionfoodprogram.org to learn how to organize a food drive, to donate and to volunteer and to find a list of partner agencies supported by their efforts.
