CAPITAL REGION FOOD PROGRAM RECEIVES $1000 DONATION FROM CENTRIX BANK FOR HOLIDAY FOOD BASKET PROJECT

CONCORD, NH — On December 12, Centrix Bank President and CEO Joseph B. Reilly presented the Capital Region Food Program with a donation of $1000. As part of their annual holiday celebration, Centrix Bank donated $1000 to both the Capital Region Food Program and Portsmouth's Housing Partnership.

In making the presentation of the donation, Joseph B. Reilly, President/CEO of Centrix Bank, expressed the spirit of the gift: "During the holiday season, Centrix Bank is proud to support such a worthy and deserving local community program such as the Capital Region Food Program. The importance of the good work done throughout the year by this all-volunteer program simply cannot be understated."

According to Cheryl A. Elliott, Chair of the Capital Region Food Program, "We are grateful for Centrix Bank's generous donation to our program. The support of Centrix Bank, like other community organizations, helped feed over 1881 families through our Holiday Food Basket Project in December. In addition, this donation will continue to help local human service organizations feed those in need as part of our Year Round Distribution Project this year."
