CAPITAL REGION FOOD PROGRAM HELPS BOOST LOCAL AGENCIES' FOOD SUPPLY

CONCORD, NH — The Capital Region Food Program (CRFP) purchased 216 cases of food for the month of March for its monthly Year Round Distribution Project (YRDP). On March 13th, the cases, the equivalent of over 1.8 tons of food, were distributed to 15 local agencies that serve Concord and the surrounding communities. Distribution was held at the Market Basket on Storrs Street in Concord.

The recipient agencies were: Allenstown Welfare, Boscawen Congregational Church, Boscawen Human Services, Chichester Town Pantry, Concord CAP, Concord Human Services, First Congregational, Friendly Kitchen, Friends of Forgotten Children, Hopkinton Food Pantry, Immaculate Conception Church, St. Peter's SVP, St. Paul's Food Pantry, Suncook CAP, and Unitarian Universalist Church.

The YRDP donates cases of food to local agencies ten times throughout the year. In 2007, the YRDP distributed over 30 tons of food to its participating organizations, which provided those donations to families of need in the Greater Concord Area.
